Dormitories Being Constructed To Keep Pace With Enrollment

Next fall, students at Northwest Missouri State College will be the first to occupy the new dormitory-dining facilities.

The dormitories, now under construction north of the National Guard Armory, are being built by Glaze Construction, St. Joseph. They are scheduled for completion in September, 1966.

They will be the second buildings on campus to be of truly modern design, with the Fine Arts Building being the first. They will be constructed of structural concrete and glass.

The dormitories will house 330 men and 330 women, respectively, adding another 660 on-campus housing facilities to the present approximately 2,000. The buildings will be two of eight planned structures that will form an octagon-shaped housing complex. When the rest of the dorms are complete, a total of 4,640 student housing facilities will be available.

Each dormitory will be seven stories high, air-conditioned, and equipped with elevators. On the first floor of each building will be a house mother's apartment, a lounge, and a recreation room.

In addition to the dormitories, a dining facility to accommodate the students staying in the two halls will be built to supplement services of the present cafeteria.

Total cost for the nine-unit complex will be in excess of 10 million dollars. Funds for construction were received through Federal loans.

Work on the buildings will continue through the winter as the weather permits.

Tri Sigmas to Have Party, Honor Other Sororities

Members and pledges of Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma attended the Maryville Methodist Church Sunday as a group.

The patronesses of the sorority will give the annual Christmas party for the collegiate chapter Tuesday. The annual gift exchange between big and little sisters will be held at this time.

That evening, after closing hours, the members of Sigma Sigma Sigma will host a Christmas party in the lounge of Roberta Hall for all other Greek social sororities.

The Tri Sigs and their brother fraternity, Phi Sigma Epsilon, were interested in improving the breed and educating the public about it.

After their first three dogs were imported from Germany, they started a careful breeding program. Today they raise from 30 to 50 puppies a year. These are of three dachshund coat varieties: Smooth, long hair, and wire hair. The Garners have raised, owned, or shown 16 miniature dachshunds to championship.

"Breeding and showing dogs is our hobby, not a business," Mrs. Garner explained. "Our one aim is to improve the breed. We like to have the dogs pay their own way through the sale of pets. To do this, you need to breed a top dog once in a while, one which will command a good price."

silicon, will go caroling together at homes of shut-ins throughout Maryville.

Delta Sigma Phi to Carol

Caroling sponsored by the pledges will begin the Christmas celebration of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity tomorrow.

Wednesday the fraternity will hold a house party, highlighted by trimming a Christmas tree and exchanging gifts.

The following evening the pledges will provide the program for the Alpha Sigma Alpha Christmas party.

Phi Mu Secret Santas

The women of Phi Mu will sing Christmas carols in front of the fraternity houses and men's dormitory Monday.

Phi Mu will also hold its annual "Secret Santa" Christmas party Tuesday.

Christmas carols, refreshments and a presentation of a gift to the chapter sponsor, Miss Laura Frances Jackson, will highlight the Phi Mu party.

As a service project, the chapter will present a program for the patients in the St. Joseph State Hospital.

They will also "adopt" a U.S. Army squadron in Viet Nam, and each girl will correspond with one or two of the men.

Alumnae to Hold Delta Zeta Dinner

An annual Christmas event of the Delta Zeta sorority is a progressive dinner sponsored by the Maryville Delta Zeta alumnae.

After the college chapter members sing Christmas carols at each house, they will be served one course of the meal. At the last home they will be feted at a Christmas party, which will include an exchange of gifts. Each girl will buy a toy for a grab bag which will be donated to the pupils in the school for retarded children, Maryville.

In support of the National Hearing Society, the local Delta Zeta Epsilon Rho chapter will buy specially designed Christmas cards this year.

A local project of Delta Zeta is putting tray cards and tray favors on hospital trays once each month at the St. Francis Hospital.

Chorus to Present Christmas Caroling

The College Chorus will participate in the all-school Christmas dance this evening by leading a student carol sing in the Charles Johnson Theater of the Fine Arts building at 8:15 o'clock.

Students are urged to participate in the carol sing before attending the dance. Booklets will be provided so that all guests can join in the singing.

According to Gilbert Whitney, director of the College Chorus, it long has been a tradition for the chorus to perform at the Christmas dance. This feature was begun when the dances were first held in the old gymnasium, now the Little Theater, in the Administration Building.

The change in location has been made because the Lamkin Gymnasium is too large for the chorus to be effective. Mr. Whitney stated that, by having a pre-dance program in the new auditorium, the chorus should be "more successful with its message in music."

College Chorus Tours Area High Schools

The College Chorus, under the direction of Gilbert Whitney, sang yesterday at the high schools in DeKalb, Faukett, and Easton.

It presented a program of varied music, including Christmas songs.

Service Sorority Plans Instigated by Pledges

Christmas projects for the Gamma Sigma Sigma service sorority have been assigned to the pledges this year.

On the agenda for the Yuletide season are the making of tray favors for the hospital and gifts for the special school in Horace Mann. However, actives will take part in planning the sorority's Christmas party scheduled for Monday. The club has also sent its Christmas present to the Korean orphan that Gamma Sigma Sigma sponsors.

Travel Staff to Meet With Students, Faculty

Miss Louise Weeks, Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Marlene Harmon, New York, will be on campus Monday through Wednesday to discuss mission vocations with students and faculty.

Miss Weeks will meet with students and discuss social work in community centers, church in the desegregating south, the church and the poverty program, and Christian responsibility. Miss Harmon will meet with faculty and administration to explore the role of the college in encouraging students to become involved in social and mission work.

The women are representing six protestant denominations. Alan Pruitt is the student coordinator for the project.

An organizational meeting for students will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Wesley Quarters of the Methodist Church. Students desiring interviews with Miss Weeks should contact Pruitt at 582-2842 or the Wesley Foundation office at 582-2211.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB officers, Jan Spring, Diane Whitney, president, and Diane Whitner, secretary, were pleased to have a few minutes in conference with Congressman W. R. Hull Tuesday evening. All sessions were well attended.

Congressman W. R. Hull Emphasizes Need To Halt Communist Threat in Viet Nam

Foreign policy — Viet Nam — and how it affects all individuals was discussed by Congressman William R. Hull Tuesday in the theater of the Fine Arts Building.

Congressman Hull stated that foreign policy concerns college students because of the growing spread of communism. It affects others because 50 per cent of the tax dollar is spent on defense, he added.

In discussing foreign policy, Congressman Hull indicated that he is 100 per cent in favor of President Johnson's program. He stated that it is in the United States' own interest to stop aggression in South Viet Nam because the whole Southeast Asia area and the Pacific will go communist if the threat is not blocked. Then the fighting would gradually inch closer to United States' shores, he said.

Congressman Hull is definitely against the demonstrations against fighting in Viet Nam. He believes these demonstrations are playing into Communist hands by confusing the Chinese people about American feelings towards Viet Nam.

Demonstrators, according to the Congressman, have even been sending letters to him in Viet Nam encouraging him to fight halfheartedly against the Viet Cong.

A question-and-answer session followed. Topics ranged from the Supreme Court decision that Communists do not have to register to economic foreign policy.

Patricia Brown To Give Recital

Patricia Brown, B-flat clarinetist, will present her recital at 8:14 p. m. Monday in the Charles Johnson Theatre of the Olive Delane Arts Building.

Marcia Russell, pianist, will accompany Miss Brown. Underclassmen assisting to be Wendee Beam, soprano; Trecek piano, and Didover, piano.

The program will begin with a B-flat clarinet selection by Miss Brown, "Concerto for B-flat," Rossler. Miss Beam will sing "Gentle Shepherd," golisi; "Langi Dal Cardi," Sarti; "A Memory of a Child," and "Ouvre tes Bleus," Massenet.

After intermission, Miss Brown will play "Clair de la Lune," Jean Jean. Before her selection, "Andante et Scherzo," Dere, Trecek will play "Praeludium and Fugue in A-flat Major," and "Sonata for Piano," Grieg.

Kansas City Artist Displays Work in DeLuce Building

An exhibition of three-dimensional constructive art works by Thomas Michael Stephens, Kansas City, will be on display in the Olive DeLuce Fine Arts Building until Dec. 16.

In connection with the exhibit a lecture was given Tuesday by the artist on the three-dimensional reality of constructive art. The lecture, illustrated by slides, was followed by an open discussion.

Included in the exhibit are examples from the categories of relief constructions, free-standing constructions, suspended constructions, and free-moving kinetic constructions.

Stephens, a young constructionist artist, practices design in Kansas City. Among his recent works are a motorized fountain construction for a cooperative housing development; plans for a 34-foot free-moving stairwell construction and a 20-foot landscape for Rockhurst College, and a design for a series of nine intra-city playgrounds for the recreation division of the Kansas City Welfare Department.

Appropriate Dress Set for Cafeteria

It is recommended by the Dean of Students Office that students follow the dress regulations when they go to the cafeteria meals to save the embarrassment of rejection.

Sunday apparel should include, for women, stockings and good shoes and a suit or dress appropriate for church. Men should wear a shirt, tie, trousers, dress shoes, and a suit coat or sport coat. Week night dress for women should be skirts and blouses or sweaters, or dresses. Men should wear slacks and sport or dress shirts and socks. Sweat shirts are not acceptable.

Attire worn by students to meals is subject to approval by the staff and faculty members. Students in unsuitable clothes may be asked to change before being allowed to eat in the college cafeteria.

Junior Varsity Defeats Cardinals

The Northwest Missouri State Junior Varsity defeated the William Jewell Cardinals, 65-58, Saturday evening preceding the varsity Bearcat-Cardinal contest.

It was the young Bearcat's first victory after losing to Peru State, 73-66, last Friday evening. The 'Cats held a 29-26 lead at halftime and went on to victory over the Cardinals. Mike Hoeferlin lead the Maryville scorers with 18 points. Stan Carlson added 12 points and Bruce Blakely contributed 10.

The next game for the Junior Varsity is December 18, when they will challenge William Jewell again at Liberty.

The Garners have also studied and raised Shetland sheep dogs, Great Pyrenees, five champion Schipperkes, and one champion Boston terrier and have started three Pembroke Welsh Corgi toward championship.

Mrs. Garner, an American Kennel Club licensed judge of dachshunds, has judged in shows from coast to coast. She comments that her greatest thrill in judging is seeing so many good dogs. One day she judged 168 dogs in 10 hours at Santa Barbara, Cal.

Mrs. Garner is intensely interested in elementary education. Currently she is a senior at MSC working for her BS in Education degree. While in high school, she took a normal training course and later attended college two years. She has taught in a country school and at West Des Moines and Waterloo primary schools.

For a number of years after her marriage, she kept her desire to earn a college degree as a long-term goal. When the Garners moved to their attractive farm home on Highway 71, she enrolled at MSC. She advises other adults to try college work, saying, "It is a wonderful way to gain new zest for living."

Mrs. Garner stated that she could not have done all these things if it had not been for her husband's sharing her interest in many projects. They both enjoy bowling and square dancing. They also have many antiques.

Mr. Garner is accomplished in his own field. He raises Aberdeen Angus cattle and has received numerous awards for his prize heifers and steers. He is a graduate of the University of Iowa at Ames and served as an extension agent in Minnesota for six years.

Among Mrs. Garner's other hobbies are doing needlepoint and playing the organ.

TKE, ASA Entertain Noves Children

CONGENIAL SANTA, Everett Brown, furnished the high point in a funfilled day for Rena Wampler, Bobby Gardner, and Janet Beck, at the ASA-TKE orphan party last weekend. Sunday was a wonderful day, the children agreed.

For the past 11 years, the members of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority have been bringing cheer into the hearts of children at Christmas time.

They accomplish this by means of their annual ASA-TKE orphans' party, held during the holiday season for the children of Noyes Home, St. Joseph. This year's party was held last weekend with 26 children ranging in age from 5-14 years of age, riding here on a college bus, accompanied by their home director, Mrs. Lilian Ratcliff.

Upon their arrival, the children, accompanied by members of both host organizations, attended worship services at the First Methodist Church. Later, the girls were taken to dinner in the college cafeteria by the Alphas while the boys ate at the TKE house. The afternoon program started with viewing cartoons in the Den, followed by a visit from Santa Claus in the Rose Room, where presents were distributed to the children.

One distinguished visitor at the program was President Robert P. Foster, who was accompanied by Mrs. Foster.

About the program, Dr. Foster said, "It is a moving experience to witness the interest, cooperation, devotion and love exhibited by these college students for the children. I only wish the public could see and hear of this kind of activity instead of the kind some minority groups sometime reflect."

All too soon came the time for the children to return to the bus for the trip home. Before leaving, Mrs. Ratcliff expressed her thanks and appreciation to all those involved in making the program possible.

"This association with the members of ASA and TKE is the highlight of the entire year for the children," Mrs. Ratcliff said.

Public Is Invited To County Contest

The Nodaway County division of the American Legion high school oratorical contest will be held at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Maryville junior high school auditorium.

Each contestant will deliver a prepared oration on some phase of the Constitution, emphasizing the responsibilities of citizenship. The winner will represent Nodaway County at the Fourth District contest, scheduled for January.

This is part of the 32nd annual Missouri Legion high school oratorical contest. The public is invited to attend, according to George Hinshaw, Northwest Missouri State forensics director and county chairman.

Guest EditorialFor Fun---Enter the Race

A wide variety of sports car events fall under the general heading of rallies, which are divided into two different types: the time and distance rallies and the gimmick rallies.

In the former, scoring is based upon the ability of contestants to maintain certain predetermined average speeds over a measured course. Time is the essential ingredient in determining the winners of such an event, although distance may also be used occasionally as a tie-breaker.

A gimmick rally is one in which scoring is based upon some factor other than time or distance (although either or both of these elements may also be used). Luck and familiarity with the area in which the event is held frequently have a great deal more to do with determining the outcome than does skill.

In the competition at rallies "sports cars" participate. The international sports car association states that for international competition a sports car, one weighing up to 4,400 pounds, may have an engine of any size.

It must have seven centimeters of ground clearance, be able to turn inside parallel lines 13.5 meters apart, have a self-starter, four-wheel brakes, two seats of equal dimension, doors, windshield and wiper, mudguards, a hardtop or a hood, as well as rearview mirror, silencer, horn and four wheels all of the same size.

A more generally accepted definition is: A sports car is a high-performance automobile capable of transporting at least two people and their luggage in reasonable comfort and also suitable for road competition.

Certain types of cars may be added to the latter definition. Among these are Renaults, Volkswagens, Corvairs, Corvettes, and sedans.

Most people rally because they find that rallies are "fun." They would challenge others: "Why not try a rally? Discover what it's all about and why so many new enthusiasts have sprung up around the country during the past two years."

It's very easy to do. You don't even need a sports car. Haul out the family bus — be it coupe, sedan or station wagon (last year's champion won in a Pontiac Catalina) — and make your way to the starting point of the very next rally in your area. You won't be sorry!

Alpha Kappa Lambda To Hold Open House

The men of Alpha Zeta chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity have extended invitations to their open house from 3 to 5 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

The chapter, founded in April of 1963, recently moved into a new, three-story colonial style structure located at Seventh and Walnut. The 31-room house, with an adjoining housemother's apartment, accommodates 38 men. It is fully air conditioned and carpeted.

One of the many features of the house is the two-men study rooms which come furnished with desks, study chairs, chest-of-drawers, bunk beds, and individual built-in closets. Bath and shower facilities are located on every floor.

Eating facilities in the house include a dining room, which will accommodate 50 men, and a large commercial-type kitchen. Adjoining the dining room is a small TV-trophy room in which the men can relax.

Entering the house, guests first view a spacious formal living room accented with Spanish traditional furniture. Highlights of the room are the suspended lamps which are 16th century in motif. The draperies are styled to match the decor of the room.

Housemother for the fraternity is Mrs. Clara Peterson, formerly of Carl Junction, Mo. "Mom," as Mrs. Peterson is most commonly called, lives in a spacious apartment which adjoins the house. The apartment consists of a bedroom, bath, living room, and a small kitchenette. Early-American furniture is used in her apartment.

Campus to Have New Organization

An MSC chapter of People to People is now under way, reported Michael Thompson, chairman.

After the organization has had its constitution ratified, it will be recognized by the administration and will become an official campus organization. Thompson pointed out that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower described the organization as "a voluntary effort of private citizens to advance the cause of friendship between nations."

Thompson, a student from England, stated that while there are eight foreign students on campus, the club is "open to all college students." Featured will be talks by the foreign students on their countries and by special guests who have traveled abroad.

Sponsors of the organization are Dr. Joseph A. Dreps, chairman of the Department of Foreign Languages; Dr. James L. Lowe, associate professor of sociology; James DeMarce, social science instructor; Charles Slattery, foreign language instructor; and Robert C. Sunkel, acting chairman of the Department of Fine Arts.

Bearcats to Open Play In MIAA at Kirksville

The Northwest Missouri State cagers will be trying to get back into the winning column as they travel to Kirksville and Washburn of Topeka, Kas.

Last week the Bearcats were victorious in their first game with Pittsburg State but dropped two close contests to Peru and William Jewell.

The 'Cats will challenge the Bulldogs at Kirksville tonight in the first conference game of the season. Although not as powerful as in previous years, the Bulldogs had little trouble in handling Maryville last season.

Floyd McMillon, a stout 6-8 pivot who averaged 15.5 per game last year, is the best Kirksville returnee from among six lettermen.

The Washburn Ichabods and the Bearcats will renew their rivalry at Topeka Tuesday night. Coach Norman Short is trying to find replacements for three of last year's seniors and 6-5 leading rebounder Pete Nelson, who was hurt seriously in a car accident. Top returnees are 6-6 forward Ron Ford and 6-5 center Sam Shipstead.

Maryville dropped a thriller last Friday night at Peru, Neb., State. The score was deadlocked many times before Peru pulled ahead in the final seconds of play. Dave Remund

Washington, M.U. Swamp Bearcats,

In the season openers, the Bearcat swimming team dropped a tightly-contested meet to Washington University, 54-41, and fell to the University of Missouri, 58-37.

The Bearcat medley team of Mark Thomas, John Ridgeway, Stevee Conner, and Guy Fogel, starting against Washington, won in a record time of 4:18.6. Randy Hanson set a record in winning the individual medley with a 2:21.8 clocking.

Conner swam a record of 2:46.2 in the 200-yard butterfly, and Thomas turned in a record 2:26.1 in the 200-yard backstroke.

Despite these and two other first place efforts, by Phil Cox in the diving and Ridgeway in the 200-yard breast stroke, Washington led going into the last relay 47-41. They ended the Bearcats' victory hopes by winning the 7-point event.

The Missouri Tigers won 8 of 11 events, including both relays, to dominate the Bearcats' second meet from start to finish.

Thomas, Jerry Peirce, and Dan Hertzog took the 'Cats' only first places, in the 200-yard backstroke, 50-yard freestyle, and 500-yard freestyle, respectively.

The Tankers will be looking for their first victory in a home meet against Park College at 2 p. m. Saturday. Park lost to last year's squad but is improved this year, with several outstanding individuals leading the team. Park will carry a 1-0 record into the meet against the Bearcats, having downed William Jewell in its only outing of the season paced the Bearcat scorers with 16 points. Bob Marek scored 13 points. Al Van Dyke chipped in with 13 points before he injured his knee. According to Coach Dick Buckridge, Van Dyke will be out for an indefinite period of time.

After leading most of the way, the Bearcats again were defeated by the William Jewell Cardinals Saturday night. The 'Cats had a 45-36 edge with 14:59 left in the game, but the Cardinals came back and went into a stall with three minutes remaining.

Grapplers to Vie at Lincoln In Olympic Type Tourney

NWMSC wrestlers, coached by Jerry Landwer, will compete this weekend in the Great Plains AAU Tournament, Lincoln.

Wrestlers from the University of Wyoming, Oklahoma State University, the University of Iowa, and the University of Nebraska are among the participants in this tournament.

Last weekend the MSC grapplers won their seventh consecutive Graceland Tournament championship by scoring a record 107 points against a good 10-team field. The Bearcats placed in every class in the tournament.

Ron James was voted the outstanding wrestler after pinning all three of his opponents and winning the title in his weight class. Jerry Mason regained the title in his class with a 5-0 decision over Curtis of Simpson in the finals. Mason held the title in 1962 but lost it in 1963. Allan Packer claimed his third straight Graceland title in the 167 division.

Other meets coming up include an intrasquad match at 7:30 p. m. Thursday to pick the team for the rest of the year. The next dual match will be with Kansas University on Jan. 6.
